Perak, renowned for its sun-drenched islands and beaches, is home to a stunning range of marine life. Its natural wealth is complemented by magnificent modern landmarks, such as the National Mosque, Kuala Lumpur, the Petronas Twin Towers, and the futuristic Petronas Twin Towers. The state’s rich history is showcased through the Ruins of Malacca, the Malacca Sultanate, and the Malacca Sultanate Museum. Among the state’s numerous species of birds and wildlife, the Malaysian Rhinoceros is unique to the area. The state is also home to Malaysia's oldest rubber tree, located in Kuala Kangsar. The Pasir Salak Historical Complex is a tribute to the Malay warriors of the Land of Grace, Perak. This tropical paradise boasts pristine jungles and is a vibrant destination with a diversity of cultures and traditions. This page provides an overview of the attractions of Malaysia!